

Roaming the Wilderness

Donated by Katrina Vasquez

Small - 12 inch butterfly

Inspired by the beautiful wilderness of Payson, Arizona. As a frequent visitor, Payson brings a sense of peace. "I enjoy it's wilderness, watching the wild elk roam, and the stillness that winter brings."

As an Arizona native, Katrina has drawn much of her inspiration from the captivating desert landscape. From black and white charcoals to digital art, she has worked with a wide variety of media. At the heart of Katrina's life is her role as a wife and mother. Her son, a vibrant source of inspiration and joy, has become the focal point of her latest art projects. Her work, characterized by its playful details and colorful appeal, continues to evolve as she balances her artistic pursuits with the joys of motherhood.
